

Laws of Vermont.

LA MOILLE CO. ACT CONCL'D.] shall hereafter be commenced before the first day of December next, in either of said Counties of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, and Orleans, in which the defendant or defendants shall reside within the County of Lamoille, and the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall reside without the state, shall be removed to the county court of Lamoille county, to be there finally tried and determined. And the Clerks of the Courts in the counties of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, and Orleans are directed to deliver to such persons as may be authorized by the court of the County of Lamoille, the files and original papers in all such actions as may be removed as aforesaid, and the expense of such removal shall be advanced by the plaintiffs in such actions, and shall be taxed in the bills of costs, if they shall recover.

Provided, That all actions of ejectment shall be tried and finally determined in the County where the land lies.

Sec. 5. It is hereby further enacted, That, all appeals from the judgment of justices of the peace, in the Counties of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, and Orleans, heretofore prayed out, or which shall hereafter, before the first day of December next, be prayed out and granted, by the justices of the peace aforesaid, in which actions both parties, or the plaintiff reside in the County of Lamoille, or in which the defendant is living within said County and the plaintiff without the same, and the plaintiff shall request the same, shall be entered in the County Court for the County of Lamoille, and there tried and determined; and all appeals, where the plaintiff resides without the state, and the defendant within the County of Lamoille, shall be entered in said County Court for the County of Lamoille and there tried and determined.

Sec. 6. It is hereby further enacted, That every action which is removable by the preceding sections of this act, being already commenced, and made returnable to the County Court next to be held in and for the County of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, or Orleans, and not having been returned to such Court, is hereby made returnable to the County Court next to be held within and for the County of Lamoille.

Provided, Such writ be served on the defendant twelve days before the sitting of said last mentioned Court.

Sec. 7. It is hereby further enacted, That when the plaintiff and defendant live within the County of Lamoille, it shall be lawful for the plaintiff to have his action commenced before the County Court next to be held in the County of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, or Orleans, in the same way he would have had a right to do, if said Lamoille County were not about to be organized; and if the plaintiff's writ has already been served, or shall be served within twelve days of the sitting of the County Court next to be held within and for the County of Lamoille, the same writ shall be returned to, and entered upon the docket of said last mentioned Court, and the action or actions shall be tried and finally determined by the County Court for Lamoille County.

Sec. 8. It is hereby further enacted, That all officers who have or may serve any of the aforesaid writs, shall charge and receive travel fees only from the place of service to the place of holding the County Courts for Lamoille County; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 9. It is hereby further enacted, That the plaintiff and defendant in every action that shall be removed from the County Court of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, and Orleans County, and entered upon the docket of the County Court next to be held in and for the County of Lamoille, shall be subject to every rule now in force and heretofore made respecting such action, by the court from which such action is to be removed, and the parties to such action shall proceed to final judgment in the same way they would be obliged if there were no removal of said action.

Sec. 10. It is hereby further enacted, That the judges of the county court in the County of Lamoille for the ensuing year may forthwith appoint a person to receive of the respective clerks of the county courts in the counties of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, and Orleans, all the original writs and papers, relating to the actions now pending before said county courts, and are made removable by this act to the county court next to be held at Hydepark in the County of Lamoille; and it shall be the duty of each clerk aforesaid to make out and deliver with said files a true and attested copy of what is written on his dockets respecting every action so removed; for which services the clerk shall be entitled to receive twelve cents in each action, to be paid by the plaintiff and taxed in his bill of cost.

Sec. 11. It is hereby further enacted, That every civil action and bill in Chancery, now pending before the Supreme Court and court of Chancery in the counties of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, and Orleans, shall be removed to, and entered upon the docket of the Supreme Court and Court of Chancery next to be held at Hydepark in the County of Lamoille, to be finally tried and determined in said County.

Provided, however, No action or bill shall be so removed, unless the plaintiff and defendant live within the county; or the plaintiff within said county and defendant without said State; or the defendant live within said county and the plaintiff without said State; or the matter in controversy be about the title of lands lying and being in said county. And it shall be the duty of the several clerks of the Supreme Court and court of Chancery in the counties of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington, and Orleans, to deliver over, on demand, the files and all the papers in his custody, proper to be used on the trial of such action or bill, to any person who may be appointed by the Judges of said court, to receive the same; also it shall be the duty of such clerks to deliver over to the person appointed, a true and attested copy of what is written concerning such actions on the docket kept by such clerk—for which services the clerk shall be paid twenty-five cents in each action, by the plaintiff, and the same shall be taxed in the plaintiff's bill of costs.

Sec. 12. It is hereby further enacted, That there shall be one probate district in said county, consisting of the whole tract described in the lines of said county, which shall be denominated the Probate District of Lamoille.

Sec. 13. It is hereby further enacted, That the Secretary of State be, and he is hereby directed to cause this act to be published in all the newspapers in Montpelier, as soon as may be.

Sec. 14. It is hereby further enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately upon the passage thereof.

CARLOS COOLIDGE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
D. M. CAMP, President of the Senate.
October 24, 1836. Approved, S. H. JENISON.

17.—An Act, relating to the duties of constables in the county of Lamoille, and providing for the executing certain precepts in the hands of officers on the first day of December next.

Sec. 1. It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, That all constables within the county of Lamoille who, at the annual March meeting of the respective towns by which they were chosen, had jurisdiction given them throughout the respective counties to which they belonged, agreeably to the law extending the jurisdiction of constables, shall have the same power and authority in executing precepts and fulfilling their duties, as if the county of Lamoille had been fully organized at the time of the respective elections of such constables.

Provided, That nothing herein shall extend the powers of any constable in the county of Lamoille beyond the next annual March meeting in the respective towns in said county.

Sec. 2. It is hereby further enacted, That all officers in said county of Lamoille, holding any execution against any person or persons residing within said county, if commitment be necessary thereon, after the first day of December next, shall commit such person or persons to the keeper of the common jail within and for said county of Lamoille. And all officers in the counties of Franklin, Chittenden, Washington and Orleans, as now regulated by law, shall have the same power and authority to execute any precept, placed in their hands for service or levying previous to the first day of December next, against any person or persons living or being found within said county of Lamoille, in the same manner as if said county of Lamoille had not been created or organized.

Provided, That from and after the first day of December next, all officers of the several counties from which said Lamoille county was formed shall, upon all precepts so placed in their hands previous to the first day of December next, commit any person or persons, where commitment becomes necessary, to the keeper of the common jail in and for said county of Lamoille, from and after the first day of December next, and such officers shall have full power and authority to execute all processes contemplated by this section of the act, to be placed in their hands previous to the first day of December next, in as full and ample a manner as if they were legal officers in said Lamoille county.

Sec. 3. It is hereby further enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately from its passage.
